

2018 Biomedical HIV Prevention Summit
Tentative Workshop Agenda (titles are subject to change)

Sunday, December 2

Noon – 7:00 pm Registration / CEUs Desk

3:00 – 7:00 pm Exhibit Hall

Monday, December 3

7:00 am - 4:00 pm Registration/ CEUs Desk

7:30 am – 8:15 am Breakfast

8:30 – 10:00 am Plenary

#MeToo Movement and the Intersection with Trauma-Informed HIV Prevention

10:30 – 12 Noon Session 1 Workshops

- Biomedical Intervention Programs for Veterans and the Military
- Potential Biomedical Prevention Options for the Future. Housing, Healthcare and the Biomedical World
- How can injectable treatments be effective in our communities?
- Partnerships with Existing Curanderos (Healers)
- PrEP and transwomen
- PrEP programs for women
- PrEP, PEP, and Immigrants: Identifying Barriers and Navigating Assistance Programs
- Religious Leaders and Their Role in Biomedical Intervention
- Sexual Health Rights for Youth

12 Noon – 1:00 pm Lunch

1:00 – 2:30 pm Plenary

Ending the Epidemic

2:45 pm – 4:15 pm Session 2 Workshops

- Centering the Work with Sex Workers: PrEP, PEP, and U=U

- Gender Affirming Care to Improve PrEP Access and Use among Transgender Women and Men
- How are We Doing? The Status of Biomedical Interventions - Solutions from the Field
- Improving Access for Those in Need: Drug Use and Biomedical Prevention
- Intermittent PrEP: Is it for More than Just the French
- PEP and Women: What are the Options
- Social Determinants of Health in Immigrant Communities
- Social Media Strategies for Outreach, Engagement and Retention
- Transgender Equity, Healthcare Rights and HIV treatment
- Who to Test and Where to Refer? Looking at the Outreach and Linkage Strategies for Biomedical Interventions

4:30 – 6:00 pm Session 3 Workshops

- Access to Biomedical Prevention for Women in the South
- Use of Automated Natural Language Text-Based Support for PrEP Adherence
- Federal Strategies for Biomedical Interventions
- Biomedical Services for the Previously Incarcerated returning to the Community
- Medical-Legal Partnerships to Address Healthcare and Unmet Needs among Documented and Undocumented Immigrants
- Navigating Services for Black Transwomen
- PrEP-ception: PrEP and Reproductive Health
- The Lesson from HPTN 073 Uptake and Access in Black Gay and Bisexual Men
- The Importance of PrEP Workgroups to ensure Success
- Youth and TASP, PrEP and PEP, the Importance of a Sexual History

Tuesday, December 4

7:30 am - Noon Registration/ CEUs Desk

7:30 am – 8:15 am Breakfast

8:30 – 10:00 am Plenary

U=U and People of Color: The Road to Viral Suppression

10:30 – 12 Noon Session 4 Workshops

- Adapting HIV Behavioral Interventions to Support PrEP Initiation and Adherence
- Community Partnerships to Ensure Holistic Care
- Engagement and Empowering Service Providers to Meet Women in Non-Traditional Social Settings
- Leveraging the 340B Program and State Program Funding in a Non-Expansion State

- Monitoring Health Plan Policies, Costs, and Monitoring Barriers to Pay for PrEP for Uninsured Patients in the Non-Expansion States
- STIs and Sexual Health
- The Problem of PrEP Persistence
- Within vulnerable populations, how do we model, address, and overcome Addressing Mistrust in Vulnerable Populations so that they engage successfully in public health agencies and endeavors
- Women of Color + Community Mobilization

12 Noon – 1:00 pm Lunch

1:00 – 2:30 pm Plenary

Closing the Racial Inequity Gap in ARV based Prevention